New Zealand

READ THE TEXTS AND ANSWER THE QUESTIONS.

New Zealand is a country in the south-west of the Pacific Ocean, consists of 2 large islands: North Island (with the capital - Wellington) and South Island

The early Polynesian settlers in New Zealand, Maoris, called the country Aotearoa, which means Land of the Long White Cloud.

New Zealand is not a crowded country. There are more sheep than people there.

Most people live on North Island in the capital, Wellington or in Auckland.

People from New Zealand are called New Zealanders, or sometimes 'kiwis'. This is because the national symbol of the country is a bird called the kiwi.

The kiwi has no wings and can't fly.

Maoris say hello by pressing their noses together in a greeting called hongi. Kia Ora means "hello".

Maoris have a special dance called the Haka, when they stick their tongues out to frighten their enemies.

There are many types of the Haka dance.

The most known haka in New Zealand is the Ka Mate haka, because it has traditionally been performed by the All Blacks before the matches.

New Zealanders are very proud of their national rugby team, the All Blacks. The team gets its name from the fact that it plays in black shirts, shorts and socks.
