

MR. BEAN AT THE SUPERMARKET

It's Saturday and Mr. Bean got up later than usual, in fact, he got up at 8,30. He had the typical English breakfast, with bacon, eggs, mushrooms and sausages. He is good at cooking.

Right now, he is at the supermarket. He always does the shopping on Saturdays. Today, he needs a loaf of bread, two bottles of milk, a packet of biscuits, a piece of cheese, a bottle of mustard; moreover, he wants to buy a kilo of flour, some sugar and some butter because he is going to make a cake for his mum who is visiting him in the afternoon. Before going to the supermarket, he went to the florist's and bought a bunch of flowers for her. He is always happy when his mother pays a visit to him.
