MILLY AND THE RAINBOW

Milly sits under the apple tree and watches the clouds go over the hills. What a wet day!

She eats an apple and waits for the rain to stop. Then, the sky turns blue again, and the Sun shines. Then she sees the rainbow. It begins as an explosion of light in the clouds. The sky fills with dazzling colours: blue, orange, green and purple. Then the ends of the rainbow begin to fall to Earth...

The rainbow lands in the garden.

'Wow!' Milly goes to the rainbow and touches it. She feels nothing, just air. But the colours move under her fingers.

When she looks up, the rainbow moves into space.

She asks herself: "Can I go inside the rainbow?". She steps inside.

It is beautiful! And very quiet. Milly can't hear anything.

She looks up. The rainbow seems to continue forever...

WHOOSH! Milly is in the rainbow. It is a tunnel of light. She slides inside and she tumbles over and over but doesn't hurt herself. Up and up and up she goes, so fast.

But rainbows go up... and rainbows come down. Soon she falls down the side of the rainbow. She can see the green grass below.

BOOM!! She lands hard, but she's fine.

Milly stands up. She is on the other side of the valley. She can see her house, far away. It is like a very small white box with a rainbow in the garden. Everything is calm and very beautiful.

WHOOSH! Suddenly she goes again, and she lands back in her own garden.

Then she thinks about something: 'Gold! There is gold at the end of a rainbow!'

She digs and finds a golden coin. She rubs it and reads "Make a wish before the rainbow fades".

'Oh wow!' she says. 'This is amazing! A wish!'

Milly closes her eyes and makes a wish. Then the rainbow disappears.

She looks up. The sky is blue. The Sun is golden. What a beautiful day. What a beautiful world.
